

Discover the Island's past this academic year

Welcome back! We can't wait to welcome you and your students to one of our fantastic Isle of Wight museums this academic year.

Discover the Island's fascinating history with a site visit and hands-on workshop, or be inspired by our range of fun and creative activities which are available for free online.

You can download the Museums and Schools brochure or find further information about each site, including contact details for bookings and enquiries, on the IW CEP website: iwcep.co.uk/museum-venues/

Visits and workshops at:

- Brading Roman Villa
- Carisbrooke Castle Museum
- Classic Boat Museum
- Dimbola Museum & Galleries
- IW Steam Railway
- Museum of Island History
- Newport Roman Villa
- Shipwreck Centre & Maritime Museum

Book Now: Two Fantastic Free Culture Conferences

We Are Island

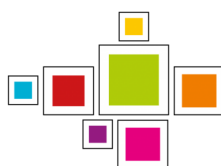

Fri 14th Oct 2022, 10am-4.30pm, Hullabaloo Festival Site, Sandown
Celebrating culture, creativity, inspiration and prosperity on the Isle of Wight. A must for everyone interested in community aspiration and regeneration on the Island.

Inspiring Young Lives

Fri 21st Oct 2022, 10am-4.30pm, Osborne House, East Cowes
Exploring how cultural education can offer new ways of enriching and connecting curriculums for brighter futures and belonging. For everyone involved with education, children and young people on the Island.

Places at both events are free but spaces are limited.

Organised by The Island Collection, find out more and book on their website.

THE ISLAND COLLECTION

Introducing...

Two new people are joining Museums and Schools partner organisations this autumn.

Kelly Wetherick is Brading Roman Villa's new Education Officer. Alongside historical learning visits, Kelly will be offering new science and environmental outdoor sessions, focussing on cross curriculum learning and wellbeing.

Claire Paul is the IW Cultural Education Partnership's new Schools Relationship Manager. Her role will include understanding the needs of local teachers and building relationships between Island schools and cultural organisations.

Last chance to help shape the future of Museums & Schools

Please take a couple of minutes to answer our teacher survey and help us support you to engage with our museums and collections in the coming year. As a thank you, you'll be entered into a prize draw to win a £50 Wight Gift Card.

Visit: forms.office.com/r/c8iLbF99wK

Closes 30th September 2022

Isle of Wight Cultural Education Partnership

Including representatives from education, arts, heritage and cultural organisations, the IWCEP supports children and young people to fulfil their creative potential and access high-quality cultural experiences.

All are welcome at its next meeting:

Wed 21st Sept, 10:30-12:30 at the Isle of Wight Steam Railway

RSVP: hello@islandcollection.org.uk

Sign up to the Museums & Schools mailing list

If you'd like to hear all the latest news and opportunities from Isle of Wight Museums and Schools, you can receive our newsletter (issued once or twice a term) direct by signing up to our mailing list.

Just complete your details here:

forms.office.com/r/xxD24efW0J